

Pre-K/Early Childhood

Pre-K children learn best through exploring, singing, moving, and participating in hands-on activities. It is suggested that you and your child choose a few activities each day to complete in 20-minute chunks. Don't forget to encourage them and give them praise. Enjoy your time learning through play!

Resource	Guidance Information
Teaching Strategies: The Creative Curriculum	Teaching Strategies developed the Healthy at Home toolkit. It offers a free selection of resources, that are also available in Spanish, from The Creative Curriculum that families can use.
Scholastic Learn at Home	Scholastic Learn at Home for Pre-K/Kindergarten offers free daily activities to keep kids reading, thinking and growing that are updated weekly and are available in Spanish.
PBS	Louisiana Public Broadcasting is offering a variety of resources for parents and children. The following resources are supported by PBS KIDS and are for children ages 2-8: Bright by Text – Text LPB to 274448 Ready to Learn Family Resources What to Watch PBS KIDS Apps PBS KIDS Games PBS Parents PBS KIDS Learn
Audible	Audible , an Amazon Company, allows you to stream a collection of children's stories on a desktop, laptop, phone or tablet FREE in six different languages.
Family Activities	These family activities provide learning games that complement the Creative Curriculum and give parents step-by-step instructions on facilitating activities that supports the Louisiana Birth to Five Standards .
Indoor Activities	Here are some fun indoor activities you can do with your children that are educational and filled with arts, crafts and games.
YouTube	Search YouTube for these artists to hear great songs for your Pre-K child: Jack Hartmann, Dr. Jean, The Learning Station, & Super Simple Songs.